DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-34 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-42, 44, and 47-51 of copending Application No. 10/063,336. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the only difference is the instant claims do not disclose a polyolefin component, as in the claims of the reference.

However, the instant claims do not exclude the polyolefin component since the claimed composition/method use the open term Markush terminology" comprising".

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to omit the polyolefin and its function and employed the composition as claimed since the omission of an element and loss of its function from a combination is obvious in the absence of a showing of unexpected results following from such omission . See In re Wilson, 153 USPQ 740, (CCPA 1967), Ex Parte Rainu, 168 USPQ 375.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.
